Aase Haugen welcomes new administrator

Aase Haugen Senior Services announces that Orson Bauder has joined the senior services team as the new home administrator.

Bauder brings more than 30 years of experience in long term care and senior living to Aase Haugen. His most recent position was executive director at Accura Healthcare in Cresco, IA. He graduated from St. Ambrose University with a degree in Business Administration before going on to earn his degree in Health Care Administration. "Mr. Bauder has led many initiatives that have resulted in improved staff satisfaction, quality performance and growth in his previous roles," says Steve Langland, Aase Haugen board of directors' president. "We are excited to welcome him to our team."

"I look forward to getting acquainted with the community and all of the families at Aase Haugen Senior Services continuing care retirement communities," says Bauder. "I have a passion for this work and its people, and I believe this is my calling in life and what God wants me to do."

Continuum Healthcare has been providing management services to Aase Haugen since 2012. "Our goal is to ensure smooth continued operations of our programming, and we are confident that along with Orson's leadership, we have the staff and support to do so," says Tim Mortenson, president of Continuum Healthcare. "We appreciate the work Jeffrey Schmidt provided to Aase Haugen Senior Services and we wish him the best in his future endeavors."
